Forest Service Stays Open for Hunters

Lakeview, Oregon - The Silver Lake Ranger District of the Fremont-Winema National Forests will be open for business earlier, and later, than normal on Friday, October 3, 2003.

The district office, located at the north end of Silver Lake, Oregon, will be open from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m., extending normal business hours that Friday only. Opening day of deer season is October 4th. Hunters will have additional time to purchase a variety of hunting maps the day before. Forest product permits, such as firewood, post, and poles, etc. can also be purchased by the public during this lengthened day, or regular business hours.

For more information, contact the Silver Lake Ranger District at 541-576-2107.
